

So all members can concentrate on the festive season The City of Orange Swim Club will take a break from Monday 22 - Monday 29 December with no training or club nights. The last club night of the year will be Monday 15 December. However, if you are missing the smell of chlorine in your hair, afternoon training sessions will be held on Tuesday 30 and Wednesday 31 December. Training will be back to normal from Tuesday 6 January onwards with the first club night of 2015 on Monday 12 January.